

ECMA-103, Physical Layer at the Basic Access Interface between Data Processing Equipment and Private Switching Networks

SCOPE

This ECMA Standard defines the Physical Layer characteristics of the basic access interface between data processing equipment (DPE) and private circuit switching networks (PCSN). The interface concerned is at the S reference point as defined in CCITT (Recommendation I.411). The reference configuration for the interface is given in Fig. 1.