Dear Dr. Sebestyen,

This letter is to inform you that for ECMA Standard 376 Edition 1, Microsoft Corporation will grant, on a non-discriminatory basis, to any party requesting it, licenses on commercially reasonable terms and conditions, for its patent(s), if any, deemed to be necessary for the implementation of the Ecma Standard.

This declaration remains valid only as long as the corresponding Ecma Standard remains valid.

We trust that this declaration complies with the Ecma Code of Conduct in Patent Matters related to standardized systems.

Regards,

Microsoft Corporation

Peggy Moloney
Sr. Paralegal
Interoperability Group

P.S. In addition to the above offer to grant licenses under reasonable and non-discriminatory terms and conditions, Microsoft also makes this offer on a royalty-free basis. Microsoft further makes any necessary patent claims it may have in ECMA Standard 376 Edition 1, available under two other mechanisms, <http://www.microsoft.com/interop/osp/default.msp> and <http://office.microsoft.com/en-us/products/HA102134631033.aspx>. Any implementer may choose among these mechanisms (RAND-Z License, OSP or CNS) to obtain rights to any necessary patent claims Microsoft may have.
